

NATIVE AMERICANS

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE NATIVE AMERICANS WHEN THE EUROPEANS STARTED COLONIZING THE USA?

They got pushed to the northern part of America and the government forced them to behave like white American farmers and Christianity was forced on them.

HOW DID EUROPEANS OPPRESS NATIVE AMERICANS?

They weren't allowed to speak their native language or do certain rituals, ceremonies, ^{wear their} clothing or ^{their} haircut. The children were separated from their parents and had to go to boarding schools.

IN WHAT YEAR WAS THE RESERVATION FOUNDED?

The reservation of the Spokane tribe was founded in 1881.

WHY AND BY WHOM WAS THE RESERVATION CREATED?

The Spokane Reservation was created in 1881 by U.S. President Rutherford B. Hayes through Executive Order. It was made to convert the Natives into American Christian farmers, which speak only English and are fully aware of the American culture.

WHERE IS THE SPOKANE RESERVATION LOCATED?

It surrounds the city Spokane and is located in Washington.

HOW IS THE INHABITANTS' HEALTH ON RESERVATIONS? WHAT PROBLEMS ARE THERE

Doctors are too expensive and too far away. Diseases get easier around and more people get sick.

WHAT IS THE MAIN SOURCE OF INCOME?

They were the employees of farmers and opened some casinos. They also made use of the natural resources they had.

EXAMPLES FROM "PART-TIME-INDIAN" THAT SHOW THE FACTS

- bad healthcare
- students should be like white Christians
- they got bad education
- Junior's family is poor
- alcohol and drug abuse

